Description of the courses

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A short introduction to English Law and Legal English</td>
<td>The course outlines the basic principles of the Common-law-system in the UK. The focus is on legal topics which are also interesting for German law students, especially commercial law.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Introduction to English Law and Legal English: Commercial Law</td>
<td>This lecture is part of a two-year qualification programme in English law (FFA) which consists of four changing topics. The other topics are: The Legal System in England and Wales, The law of contract and of torts, The impact of European Union law on Britain. After the two years, the programme starts again.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Study groups for lecture No. 291301</td>
<td>Interactive classes, where the content of the lecture No. 291301 will be discussed and developed. These are part of the FFA, mentioned above, as well.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moot Court Development of Criminal Law in the United States</td>
<td>The course is about the historical background of US-American Criminal law and its constitutional law underpinnings. Part of the course is a simple Moot Court regarding a case in Criminal law.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International Children's rights</td>
<td>Children all over the world need protection and support. To achieve these aims, we have to enforce their national and global rights. The lecture is about the children’s rights, their different sources and current deficits.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International Organization, Role, Functioning and Effectiveness</td>
<td>This lecture is about supranational organisations like the United Nations and its departments and their roles in the world.</td>
</tr>
